A Face in the Crowd

March 4, 2006

Hallie Jones

Lonesome Rhodes, the man everyone loves. He's a common, simple man who knows the "people" and what makes them tick. He understands how to make you adore and love him like a member of your own family. Lonesome Rhodes is energetic and wily, thanks to Vitajex which helps him win over all the ladies from grandmothers to drum majorettes. Join Lonesome Rhodes five days a week, on the radio and in full color on television. Maybe he'll sing a song just for you if you're one of his lucky fans that calls into the show.

(This is definitely one of the BEST movies we have watched in class!!!!)
